The Knowledge Management Centre serves as a catalyst to drive knowledge and learning in central banking

SEACEN PUBLICATIONS

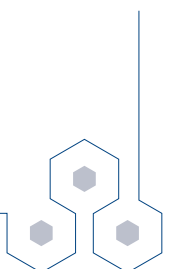

SEACEN publications consist mainly of research publications, staff papers and occasional papers, which are the outcomes of its research, learning, seminar, meeting and workshop activities. In addition, The SEACEN Centre publishes the Guide to SEACENBank Watch, The SEACEN Profile, The SEACEN Programme, Background Papers and SEACEN Economic Letter.

The following lists the completed research reports and papers published by The SEACEN Centre for the last two years. For a complete listing of SEACEN research reports, staff papers, occasional papers and institutional publications, please visit The SEACEN Centre's website at (<http://www.seacen.org>). While all publications are downloadable for free from the website, purchase orders for hard copies can be also made via the SEACEN website.
