APPLICATION PROCESS

All SEACEN training programs and meetings are by invitation only. Candidates are nominated by the respective institutions upon the request of the Centre.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

SEACEN invites and accepts nominations to participate in its training programs from 19 SEACEN Regular Members; 8 Associate Members and 8 Observers

TUITION FEES

Tuition fees will be applicable for participants of Associate and Observer central banks/monetary authorities for training programs that are not fully collaborated with international financial institutions such as the BIS, FSI, CPSS, IMF, and World Bank. For the fully collaborated training programs with these institutions, tuition fees will be waived for the first participant from such central banks of economies that are members of the above-mentioned institutions.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Letters of invitation requesting for nominations of participants are sent to the central banks and monetary authorities approximately eight to ten weeks prior to the start of the training program or meeting. Besides details of the program such as the objectives, target audience, invited speakers, tuition fees, deadline for nomination, the letter will include a draft outline, preliminary agenda and guidelines for online registration.

Once the nomination is accepted, the participant will receive an acknowledgement by email. Joining instructions, online logistics forms and other useful information will be provided to the participants to prepare them for the training program. Training programs and meetings could be held in SEACEN, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia or at locations of the SEACEN member economies. On receiving the completed logistics form from the participants, the host secretariat will make the bookings for accommodation on behalf of the participants. Participants are responsible for paying their own travel, meals, lodging expenses and insurance.

Nomination to the SEACEN Centre's courses is done via the online form located at <https://fs22.formsite.com/SEACEN/2019Nominations/index.html>

Our Programme Coordinators will be sending invitation letters to all Member Central Banks/Monetary Authorities in January of 2019.

Member Central Banks/Monetary Authorities can also express their interest to send participants to courses by sending an email to azharin@seacen.org with the following details:

Course Name

Number of potential participants
