

Senior Analyst

LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE
THE SEACEN CENTRE

Principal Duties & Responsibilities

- Conducts research activities in the area of leadership and governance to be published in approved journals, the SEACEN Centre's training materials and the SEACEN Centre's website, and leads the development of content for the SEACEN Centre's Financial Stability Journal and relevant expert groups to which the SEACEN Centre is a member.
- Lead researcher for the SEACEN Centre's collaborative projects.
- Prepares and assists in drafting background papers for high-level seminars such as the SEACEN Centre's EXCO, Deputy Governor Meetings and Board of Governors.
- Leverages on research outcomes for the design and development of cutting-edge content for case studies, research output and publications, and in the delivery of learning and research programmes. Serves as a speaker and chair for both internal training events as well as external ad-hoc events to brand the SEACEN Centre and to facilitate case studies and learning materials at the relevant training courses/workshops/seminars.
- Develops learning content for the SEACEN Centre's training programmes in collaboration with strategic partners, member institutions and the SEACEN Centre's instructional designers in order to ensure that the SEACEN Centre has a comprehensive learning solution to meet members' learning needs.
- Develops ties with subject matter experts and researchers in member central banks and other strategic international organisations to leverage on member banks' resources and feedback to support case study activities and learning materials development.
- Strengthens alliances and network with reputable international/regional research institutions and advanced central banks to enhance quality of research and learning contents.
- Builds internal capacity by providing training for relevant staff with the latest supervisory and surveillance models and tools

Role Purpose

Lead the conduct of research and training in the area of Leadership & Governance to ensure high quality research output, comprehensive and relevant learning contents and effective delivery of learning programs to make SEACEN the preferred regional learning hub.

Summary of Qualifications

Qualification: Master's Degree or PhD in Organisational Behaviour, Psychology, Accounting, Business Administration, Banking or equivalent from an accredited university.

Experience: A minimum of 5-year relevant working experience preferably at a central bank, multilateral institution, university or economic research learning institution with teaching experience and evidence of quality writing and publication.

Compensation, Benefits and Requirements

The position offers competitive salary conditions and benefits. The following documents should be sent to hr@seacen.org by 31 August 2022:

- latest CV
- relevant graduate/postgraduate certificates
- current and expected salary
- Three (3) professional references, one each from people who have worked with you in a professional capacity and who can comment on your suitability for the advertised position
- recent passport-size photo (optional)

Additional information about the position can be obtained from Shuhaila Ibrahim, Head of Corporate Services, at shuhaila.ibrahim@seacen.org. Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.

Length of Assignment

Fixed-term contract of up to three years, with possibility of renewal. The SEACEN Centre actively welcomes applications from experienced analyst at central banks/monetary authorities as part of a secondment programme.

Location and Reporting

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, with extensive travel within the region and occasional travel outside the region. Position reports to the Director, Leadership & Governance, and the Executive Director, The SEACEN Centre.