PARTICIPATION IN SEACEN LEARNING PROGRAMMES

HOW TO APPLY

Application Process: All SEACEN learning programmes and meetings are by invitation only. Candidates are nominated by the respective institutions upon the request of The SEACEN Centre.

Eligibility Criteria: The SEACEN Centre invites and accepts nominations to participate in its learning programmes from 19 SEACEN member central banks and 16 observer and invitee central banks/monetary authorities as approved by the SEACEN Board of Governors as presented in Table A.

Tuition Fees: Tuition fees will be applicable for participants of non-SEACEN member central banks/monetary authorities for learning programmes that are not fully collaborated with international financial institutions such as the BIS, FSI, CPSS, IMF, and World Bank. For the fully collaborated learning programmes with these institutions, tuition fees will be waived for the first participant from such central banks of countries that are members of the above-mentioned institutions.

Administrative Arrangements: Letters of invitation requesting for nominations of participants are sent to the central banks and monetary authorities approximately eight to ten weeks prior to the start of the learning programme or meeting. Besides details of the programme such as the objectives, target audience, invited speakers, tuition fees, deadline for nomination, the letter will include a draft outline, preliminary agenda and a nomination form.

Once the nomination is accepted, the participant will receive an acknowledgement by email or fax. Joining instructions, logistics forms and other useful information will be provided to the participants to prepare them for the learning programme. Learning programmes and meetings could be held in The SEACEN Centre, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia or at locations of the SEACEN member economies. On receiving the completed logistics form from the participants, the host secretariat will make the accommodation arrangements for the participants. Participants are responsible for paying their own travel, meals, lodging expenses and insurance.
